

Insurance firm launches new plans

Liberty General Insurance Limited has announced the launch of its exclusive in-house health claims management hub and Liberty Health 360 for its customers. Customers can now expect faster turnaround time for cashless as well as reimbursements claims. They can now directly communicate with Liberty to intimate their claims, submit required documents and follow up with other procedures. On confirmation of medical admissibility, the company will approve cashless claims within two hours.